Textbook development process in the current scenario has made a concept shift and thus moved towards giving more updated information and knowledge in a balanced proportion. Knowledge has been aligned with language skills and its appropriate usage in practical life.

This textbook has been developed by the Punjab Curriculum & Textbook Board in conformity with the guidelines provided by the National Curriculum 2006. It has been equipped with some qualitative and quantitative measures and skills so as to learn English not as a tool of sophistication and mannerism only but as a means of learning language for acquiring modern scientific knowledge and learning mechanisms.

The contents in this book comprise various genres i.e. poems, short stories, autobiographies and essays. The themes prompt the young minds for a critical analysis. The contents in this book will surely arouse the students’ interest. Text based activities will certainly help enhance listening, speaking, reading and writing skills. The ethical and moral values have been taken special care throughout the book.

Group based activities given at the end of each unit will prepare the students for group discussions and presentations. Several open-ended questions and activities will encourage critical thinking and higher order learning skills. These activities will help the students enhance their listening and speaking skills.

Suggested readings are given to arouse the interest of the students in self learning. Book reviews are included to improve writing skills and give the learners a fairly good idea of how to summarize a text.

Knowledge of grammar, if practised thoroughly, will equip the students to precisely assess writing errors. The grammar items and all difficult terms have been explained in easy and simple way for the better comprehension of the students. Contextual notes and glossary are vital parts of the book.

The inclusion of mind maps is to make the text user friendly. The exercises throughout the book range from easy to difficult and general to specific, enable the students to recognize different kinds of narration. Writing activities target various forms of writing and give ample practise in achieving the desired writing skills.

Classroom activities and teaching materials should be a step forward to speak, read and write correct English. Great care is taken while formulating comprehension questions given at the end of each unit. The given questions will enable the teachers to assess the students’ level of comprehension and concept development.

Poetry which is said to be the most magical of literature can help considerably in encouraging richness and creativity. The poems have been selected by acclaimed poets, which have a universal appeal and are cast in context that will be easy for the students to assimilate.

Revision units are also given to reinforce the concepts and add to the students’ prior knowledge. These emphasize how to apply the grammar rules effectively and appropriately in academic and social context.

Instructions/Guidelines for the Teachers

‘For the Teacher’ section will guide the teachers to use activities which establish appropriate background knowledge of topics under discussion, stimulate the students’ interest, and help in clarifying concepts.

An effort has been made to develop an interesting, useful and error free book. However, any suggestion for the improvement will be appreciated.
Unit 1

The Saviour of Mankind

Learning Objectives:

By the end of this unit students will:
- learn the reading skills: skimming, scanning and summarizing
- know and learn about the mission of the Rasool (ﷺ)
- learn how his teachings has changed the world
- recognize and use adjectives in sentences
- use of thesaurus
- utilize informational sources like encyclopedias and internet

Pre-reading:

- Mention the condition of Arabia before Islam.
- How did Islam change the lives of the people?
- Who is the last Rasool of Allah Almighty?

For the Teacher:

- Conduct pre-reading activity to arouse the students' curiosity about the life of the Rasool (ﷺ).
- Make them predict about the text by looking at the title and the illustration.
1. Arabia is the land of unparalleled charm and beauty, with its trackless deserts of sand dunes in the dazzling rays of the tropical sun. Its starry sky has excited the imagination of poets and travellers. It was in this land that the Rasool (ﷺ) was born, in the city of Makkah, which is about fifty miles from the Red Sea. Where is Makkah situated?

2. The Arabs possessed a remarkable memory and were an eloquent people. Their eloquence and memory found expression in their poetry. Every year a fair was held for poetical competitions at Ukaz. It is narrated that Hammad said to Caliph Walid bin Yazid: “I can recite to you, for each letter of the alphabet, one hundred long poems, without taking into account short pieces, and all of that was composed exclusively by poets before the promulgation of Islam.” It is no small wonder that Allah Almighty chose the Arabic language for His final dispensation and the preservation of His Word. What type of competition was held at Ukaz?

3. In the fifth and sixth centuries, mankind stood on the verge of chaos. It seemed that the civilization which had taken four thousand years to grow had started crumbling. At this point in time, Allah Almighty raised a Rasool among themselves to lift the humanity from ignorance into the light of faith.

4. When Hazrat Muhammad (ﷺ) was thirty-eight years of age, he spent most of his time in solitude and meditation. In the cave of Hira, he used to retire with food and water and spend days and weeks in remembrance of Allah Almighty.

5. The period of waiting had come to a close. His heart was overflowing with profound compassion for humanity. He had a pressing urge to eradicate wrong beliefs, social evils, cruelty and injustice. The moment had arrived when he was to be bestowed with Nabuwat. One day, when he was in the cave of Hira, Hazrat Jibril (Gabriel) (Michael) came and conveyed to him the following message of Allah Almighty:

---

For the Teacher:

- While-reading appropriate questions may be conducted.
- Guide the students to consult an atlas to locate the Muslim world.
Unit 1: The Saviour of Mankind

Read in the name of thy Lord Who created; created man from a clot (of congealed blood): Read and thy Lord is most Bountiful, Who taught (the use of) the pen, taught man that which he knew not. (Quran, 96:1-5)

6. The revelation of the divine message which continued for the next twenty-three years had begun, and the Rasool (ﷺ) had arisen to proclaim the oneness of Allah (Tauheed) and the unity of mankind. His mission was to destroy the nexus of superstition, ignorance, and disbelief, and set up a noble conception of life and lead mankind to the light of faith and divine bliss.

7. Since this belief was threatening their dominance in the society, the pagan Arabs started to mount pressure on the Rasool (ﷺ) and his followers. They wanted them to renounce their cause and take to idol-worshipping. On one occasion, they sent a delegation to the Rasool's (ﷺ) kind and caring uncle, Abu Talib. They told him to restrain the Rasool (ﷺ) from preaching Allah Almighty's message, or face their enmity. Finding himself in a dilemma, he sent for his nephew, and explained to him the situation. The Rasool (ﷺ) responded with these memorable words:

"My dear uncle, if they put the sun in my right hand and the moon in my left, even then I shall not abandon the proclamation of the Oneness of Allah (Tauheed). I shall set up the true faith upon the earth or perish in the attempt."

8. The Rasool's (ﷺ) uncle was so impressed with his nephew's firm determination that he replied:

"Son of my brother, go thy way; none will dare touch thee. I shall never forsake thee."

9. And the Rasool (ﷺ) did go the way Allah Almighty had chosen for him. Imbued with divine guidance and firm resolve, the Rasool (ﷺ) encountered all the challenges with grace and dignity. In no time he elevated man to the highest possible level in both spiritual and worldly domains. He was also a driving force behind the Arab conquests, which have created an everlasting impression on human history. No wonder, he is universally acknowledged as the most influential figure in history. In the words of Michael Hart, a great historian:

“Muhammad (ﷺ), however, was responsible for both the theology of Islam and its main ethical and moral principles. In addition he played a key role in proselytizing the new faith, and in establishing the religious practices .... In fact as the driving force behind the Arab conquests, he may well rank as the most influential political leader of all time .... The Arab conquests of the seventh century have continued to play an important role in the human history, down to the present day.”

10. Such a thorough transformation of man and society owes to the Rasool’s (ﷺ) deep faith in Allah Almighty, to his love for humanity, and to the nobility of his character. Indeed, his life is a perfect model to follow. In reply to a question about the life of the Rasool (ﷺ), Hazrat Ayesha ( ﷺ) said:

“His morals and character are an embodiment of the Holy Quran.”

The final word about the saviour of mankind in the Holy Quran is:

بيّنهُما النّبيّ، إِنَّا أَرْسَلْنَا شهداً وَ مُبَيِّناً وَ نُذِّيرَنَا وَ كِائِيٌّ إِلَى اللّهِ وَ مِسْرَاحًا شَمِيعًا

O Nabi! Surely, We have sent you as a witness, and as a bearer of good news and as a Warner. And as the one inviting to Allah by His permission, and as a light-giving torch. (Quran, 33:45-46)

Theme:

Hazrat Muhammad (ﷺ), the last Rasool of Allah Almighty, has the greatest influence on the mankind. His teachings and his life are a source of motivation and guidance for humanity.

   (comes, will come, came, had come)

Writing Skills

A. Summarize paragraph 2 of the unit in three to four sentences.

B. Write an essay on ‘The Kindness of the Rasool (ﷺ)’. (170 – 200 words)

Oral Communication Skills

A. Ask the students to make groups and discuss the social evils present in the society along with their remedial measures.

For the Teacher:

- Illustrate the use of tenses learnt earlier.
- Guide the students to write the summary of the passage in their own words highlighting main points.
- Help students use appropriate expressions in the discussion.
Unit 2

Patriotism

Learning Outcomes:

By the end of this unit students will:
- know the meaning of patriotism
- recognize the author’s point of view
- comprehend the basic themes in the text
- know the use of dictionary
- identify the kinds of sentences and their use
- guess the contextual meanings of the words

Pre-reading:
- In your opinion who is a patriot?
- Can you give an example of patriotism?
- What qualities do patriots have?

For the Teacher:
- Conduct pre-reading activity to arouse the students’ interest in the topic.
- Make them predict the contents of the text.
1. Patriotism means love for the motherland or devotion to one's country. A patriot loves his country and is willing to sacrifice when the need arises. The word patriot comes from the Latin word 'patriota' which means countryman. It is considered a commendable quality.

2. Patriotism gives people the strength and courage to safeguard the interest of the country and nation. For a patriot the sovereignty, integrity and honour of the country are of supreme values on which no compromise can be made. Patriots render sacrifice for the preservation and protection of these values.

3. Quaid-e-Azam Muhammad Ali Jinnah was a nation builder and a great patriot. He wanted to protect the values, culture, and traditions of the Muslims of the subcontinent. He gave the Muslims a sense of identity by securing a separate homeland for them. He said:

   "We must develop a sense of patriotism which galvanizes us all into one united and strong nation."

4. The spirit of patriotism makes us stay alert in the wake of foreign invasion. In the history of Pakistan there are many instances when people laid their lives for the defence of the country. In the wars of 1965, 1971 and the Kargil War, many brave soldiers gave their lives in an attempt to protect the homeland. Captain Muhammad Sarwar, Major Tufail Muhammad, Major Aziz Bhatti, Pilot Officer Rashid Minhas, Major Muhammad Akram, Major Shabbir Shareef, Sowar Muhammad Hussain, Lance Naik Muhammad Mehfooz, Captain Karnal Sher Khan and Havildar Lalak Jan – all embraced martyrdom while fighting bravely for their motherland. All of them were awarded Nishan-e-Haider, the highest military award given to great patriots who lay down their lives for the country.

For the Teacher:

- While-reading activities may be conducted to help the students interact with the text.
- Share with the students the importance of the Pakistan Movement.
5. Patriotism, therefore, is not just a feeling, it is a live spirit that continuously inspires and guides a nation. In the words of S.W. Scott, a man devoid of patriotic spirit, is like the one who:

   “Breathes there the man with soul so dead
   Who never to himself hath said,
   This is my own, my native land.”

Theme:
The unit is about the spirit of patriotism. It tells about the qualities of a patriot and how patriots look after the interest and progress of their country.

For the Teacher:
- Discuss in detail about patriotism. Give examples from history about patriots.
- Ask students to exchange views about the interests of the country and responsibilities of a citizen.
Unit 2: Patriotism

Glossary:

devotion  -------------------  loyalty commendable  -------------------  admirable supreme  -------------------  highest in status value  -------------------  worth native  -------------------  from one's motherland

Oral Activity:

Form five groups. Each group takes the responsibility to read and note details about the life of those soldiers who embraced martyrdom while fighting for their country. Visit the library or use the internet to research for the required details.

In the class, discuss your findings with your classfellows.

Comprehension

A. Answer the following questions.

1. How will you define patriotism?
2. What are the qualities of a patriot?
3. As a citizen of Pakistan what are your duties towards your country?
4. What makes us stay alert in the wake of foreign invasion?

   “We must develop a sense of patriotism which galvanizes us all into one united and strong nation.”

For the Teacher:

- Ask students to discuss in detail the life of great soldiers.

This symbol (r) indicates that British pronunciation will have /r/ only if a vowel sound follows directly at the beginning of the next word, as in faraway; otherwise the /r/ is omitted. For American English all the /r/ sounds should be pronounced.

/x/ represents a fricative sound as in lux for Scottish loch, Irish lough.

A. Give pronunciations of the following words with the help of pronunciation key in your dictionary.

patriot, sacrifice, identity, strength, instances, foreign, concerns

---

For the Teacher:

- Help students identify the pronunciations of the words with the help of pronunciation key given in their dictionaries.
- Give them good practice in pronouncing words correctly using pronunciation key.

D. Write an essay on any one of our national heroes. (170-200 words)
E. Write a short dialogue between a political activist and a teenager in which the political activist tries to make the teenager understand the importance of patriotism.

For the Teacher:

- Guide students to write an essay on “The Role of a Teacher in Character Building” by explaining to them the following qualities of essay writing.
  - Write an introductory paragraph aiming at arresting interest of the reader.
  - Use a separate paragraph for each key idea in the body of the essay.
  - Include evidence (facts, quotations, etc), examples (analogy, anecdotes, etc), or different views (elaborating an idea/opinion) to support each key idea.
  - Add a closing or summary paragraph with a synthesis of central idea, syntheses of each supporting idea, and a general concluding statement.
  - Use correct conventions of grammar and punctuation. Make a proper choice of vocabulary.
  - Write in simple, concise, clear, compact, direct and natural style.

To assess ‘writing skills’ sample rubric is given at the end of the book.
Unit 3

Media and Its Impact

Learning Outcomes:

By the end of this unit students will:
- know the role and impact of media on society
- conduct and write an interview
- illustrate the use of pronouns learnt earlier
- identify subject-verb agreement
- read and write simple e-mails

Pre-reading:
- How does media bring people closer?
- Do you know the difference between an electronic media and a print media?
- Do you like reading newspapers? Which is your favourite newspaper?

For the Teacher:
- Discuss in detail the widespread role of media in the current scenario, its uses and abuses.
- Conduct pre-reading activities to activate students’ prior knowledge and interest in the topic.
Miss Ayesha is the favourite teacher of class IX. The students eagerly attend her class.

Miss Ayesha enters the classroom with her usual smile, greets the students and takes the roll-call.

It is their tutorial day. The students are all geared up. They know what is about to come and they are prepared for it.

“Shall we start?”, she asks politely.

“Yes”, the students nod.

Teacher: “OK, as we have decided earlier, the topic for today’s discussion is “The Role of Media and Its Impact”.

To start with, let me state clearly that media is the most powerful mode of communication. It shares news and information with the people. Sometimes media spreads false news but generally it informs us about the facts around us.

Do you agree?

Students: Yes, we do.

Student 1: I would like to add a bit more to it.

Teacher: Yes, sure!

Student 1: Media helps people to share knowledge of the world. Their feelings and opinions are expressed through it. Media attracts the attention of a very large audience. Have you noticed that the first thing we do soon after entering the house is to switch on the television?

Teacher: There is no doubt about it.

For the Teacher:

- While-reading activities may be conducted to interact with the text. More while-reading questions may also be asked.
Unit 3: Media and Its Impact

Student 2: Let me say that media has become a part of our life. It not only informs us but also entertains us.

Teacher: Absolutely right. Well, do you have any idea about the two major means of communication?

Student 3: There are two means of communication, electronic media and print media. The media includes film, radio, television, internet, books, magazines and newspapers. It provides us information as well as entertainment.

Teacher: Good! It’s through media that the world has become a global village. There is coverage of all the important events of the world on television. We can have an easy access to all kinds of information through media.

Student 4: Can we say that the world is just a click away?

Teacher: May be, well, would any other student like to say something on it?

(Miss Ayesha points to the student sitting at the end.)

Student 5: Madam, in my opinion, media plays a very constructive role for the society. It raises awareness about many social issues like corruption, terrorism, drug addiction, and violation of human rights.

Teacher: Yes, you are right.

Student 6: Media has also become a mouth piece of the downtrodden.

Teacher: Yes, well said. It would not be wrong to say that media is the most vigilant institution that keeps an eye on every segment of the society. Through debates, reports and talk shows it makes everyone answerable and accountable. That is why media has become an integral part of our lives. Now, I would invite one of you to sum up the discussion.
Student 1: I would conclude the discussion by saying that media can play a positive role and has a corrective impact if it works honestly.

Teacher: Good conclusion. I am happy that all of you have participated in this discussion and have expressed yourselves very well.

(The bell rings, Miss Ayesha says goodbye to the class and leaves.)

Theme:
The theme of the unit is to highlight the role and impact of media. It tells that media can mould the opinion and mind set of people. It has a deep impact on the lives of people. Media has turned the world into a global village.

Glossary:

impact -------------------------- effect eager -------------------------- keen desire geared up ---------------------- ready integral ----------------------- essential entertain --------------------- amuse

Oral Activity:
Form groups and discuss the following.
1. How important is media in our lives?
2. What is the negative influence of media?
3. Is TV taking away the habit of reading? How?
4. Why should the government put a check on media?

For the Teacher:
- Guide students to present and explain their views clearly. Also help them support or modify their opinions with reasons.
- Help them summarize the main points of the discussion for the benefit of the whole group.
Comprehension

A. Summarize the major points of the unit in the given mind map.

The Role of Media and Its Impact

B. Answer the following questions.

1. What is the most important function that media performs?
2. What are the two major means of communication? Give three examples for each.
3. How does media provide entertainment?
4. What happens when media is allowed to play its role unchecked?
5. Give three reasons in support of your favourite TV programme.

C. Locate some books in your school library and write their titles in alphabetical order.

For the Teacher:

- Help students understand card catalogue.
- Locate and use the card catalogue.
- Identify three kinds of catalogue cards i.e. author card, title card and subject card.
- Use case and shelf labels in the library.
- Use the reference section in the library.
Vocabulary

A. Explain the following phrases as used in the text.
   geared up, global village, a click away, constructive role, raise awareness, to keep an eye, a mouth piece of the downtrodden

Unit 4

Hazrat Asma (رضی الله تعالى عنها)

Learning Outcomes:

By the end of this unit students will:
- know about the life of Hazrat Asma (رضی الله تعالى عنها)
- know, how the Muslim women served the cause of Islam
- know, how the Muslim women kept up their integrity in the times of hardship
- learn about the traits of honesty, truthfulness, valour and generosity
- learn about the use of punctuation marks
- recognize prepositions of time
- know about the essentials of paragraph writing

Pre-reading:

- What do you know about Hijrat-e-Madinah?
- Who accompanied the Rasool (صلى الله عليه وسلم) in this journey?
- Have you ever heard of the role of a Muslim woman in this venture?

For the Teacher:

- Help the students to use pre-reading strategies to predict the content of the text from the title and the illustration.
- Conduct pre-reading activities to arouse the students’ interest in the role of the Muslim women for the cause of Islam.
1. The Rasool (صلى الله عليه وسلم) and his close companion, Hazrat Abu Bakr Siddique (رضي الله عنه), migrated from Makkah to Madinah in the year 622 A.D. When the chiefs of various tribes of Makkah came to know about the migration of the Rasool (صلى الله عليه وسلم) and his close companion, Hazrat Abu Bakr Siddique (رضي الله عنه), they got furious. The chiefs were determined more than ever to find them out. They offered huge rewards and bounties for their capture, dead or alive.

2. The preparation for this journey was made at the house of Hazrat Abu Bakr Siddique (رضي الله عنه). Hazrat Asma (رضي الله عنها) rendered useful services in this regard. She prepared food for this journey. She tied the food on the camel back with her own belt as nothing else could be found. For this service she was given the title of Zaat-un-Nataqin by the Rasool (صلى الله عليه وسلم).

3. During the perilous journey, it was very difficult for anyone to supply food to Hazrat Muhammad (صلى الله عليه وسلم). The situation was so delicate that the slightest mistake could have endangered the life of the Rasool (صلى الله عليه وسلم). This grand task was nicely undertaken by Hazrat Asma (رضي الله عنها), the daughter of Hazrat Abu Bakr Siddique (رضي الله عنه). Every night, with the pack of food, she would quietly venture towards the rugged mountains in which lay the cave of Thawr. She took care of the minute details in accomplishing the task. How difficult it must have been for her to traverse the rocky path at night, with the constant fear of being detected!

4. On the night of the migration, a tribal chief of the disbelievers, Abu Jehl, in a fit of fury headed towards Hazrat Abu Bakr Siddique’s (رضي الله عنه) home. He began to knock... at the door violently. Addressing Hazrat Asma (رضي الله عنها), he demanded, "Where is your father?" She politely replied, "How would I know?" This response shows the wisdom and courage of Hazrat Asma (رضي الله عنها). She didn't make a statement that would give him a clue. She simply posed a counter question that infuriated Abu Jehl. He slapped Hazrat Asma’s face so hard that her ear-ring fell off but she remained steadfast and did not reveal the secret.

5. Her grandfather, Hazrat Abu Quhafaas was a disbeliever at that time. He was very old and had become blind. He said to her, "Asma, I think Abu Bakr has taken all the wealth, leaving you and children empty-handed and helpless." At this, she instantly ran to a corner of the home. She gathered some pebbles and put them at the place where her father used to keep his money and jewels. She covered it with a piece of cloth. "Come grandfather, look! he has left all this for us." He touched the cloth and thought it was full of gold and jewels. His concern was alleviated and he felt relieved to know that Abu Bakr Siddique (رضي الله عنه) had left all his wealth at home.

6. Hazrat Asma (رضي الله عنها) was amongst the early few who accepted Islam. She was the daughter of Hazrat Abu Bakr Siddique (رضي الله عنه) and the stepsister of Hazrat Ayesha Siddiqua (رضي الله عنها). She was the wife of Hazrat Zubair bin al-Awwam (رضي الله عنه) and the mother of Hazrat Abdullah bin Zubair (رضي الله عنه). She died at the ripe old age of about a hundred years. Hazrat Abdullah bin Zubair (رضي الله عنه) used to say that he had not seen anybody more generous and open hearted than his aunt Hazrat Ayesha (رضي الله عنها) and his mother. Hazrat Asma (رضي الله عنها) was so generous that she sold her inherited

---

For the Teacher:

- Ask the students to classify their knowledge about Hazrat Asma (رضي الله عنها) with the headings of age, family and personality traits.
- Make students locate phrases and idioms in the text and their usage.
garden and gave away all the money to the poor and the needy. Nobody ever returned empty-handed from her doorstep.

7. Hazrat Asma will always be remembered for her courage, generosity and wisdom. She had resolute faith in Allah Almighty. Her life would always be a beacon of light for all of us.

Theme:
The theme of the unit is to appreciate the integrity and valour of Hazart Asma for the cause of Islam. She is the role model for the Muslim Ummah due to her modesty, truthfulness, honesty, piety, bravery and generosity.

Glossary:

| perilous       | ------------------ | dangerous       |
| venture        | ------------------ | undertake       |
| furiously      | ------------------ | angrily         |
| refuge         | ------------------ | place of safety |
| instantly      | ------------------ | immediately     |
| constant       | ------------------ | regular         |
| detect         | ------------------ | to find out     |
| ripe           | ------------------ | mature          |
| reveal         | ------------------ | show            |
Oral Activity:

Answer the following questions orally.
- Discuss the salient features of the personality of Hazrat Asma (رضي الله عنها).
- Name some prominent women in today’s world. Share their achievements.
- What contribution can women make to the society in Pakistan?

Arrange a group discussion to comprehend the following statements.
- “Abu Bakr Siddique (رضي الله عنه) must have taken all the wealth leaving you and children behind empty-handed.”
- “This grand task was nicely undertaken by Hazrat Asma (رضي الله عنها).”

Stress and Intonation:

Stress
Read the words carefully and note the stressed and unstressed syllables in them.
HUSband   aBOUT     aRRIVE reMARkable   imPORtant     phoTOgraphy

In a dictionary the // mark shows the main stress in a word.

Intonation: The rise and fall of the voice in speaking is intonation.
The words that are in bold show the intonation pattern.
1. Do you like it?
2. Do you like it?
3. Do you like it?
4. Do you like it?

A. Find the stress words in the following paragraph.

The preparation for this journey was made at the house of Hazrat Abu Bakr Siddique (رضي الله عنه). Hazrat Asma (رضي الله عنها) rendered useful services in this regard. She prepared food for this journey. She tied the food on the camel back with her own belt as nothing else could be found. For this service she was given the title of Zaat-un-Nataquin by the Rasool (سلام الله عليه وسلم) .

For the Teacher:

- Help students understand the stress in words and sentences. Ask them to rewrite above words with stress marks as given in the dictionary.
- Explain to them how shift in intonation within a sentence changes its meaning.
- Help them summarize the main points of the discussion for the benefit of the whole group.

B. Write a character sketch of Hazrat Asma (رضي الله عنها). Then proofread and edit self and peer’s work.

Checklist

Proofread and edit your work for:

- faulty sentence structures
- errors of subject/verb agreement
- unclear pronoun references
- errors of correct word forms
- errors of punctuations and spellings

For the Teacher:

- Help students understand paragraph writing with the details that a single paragraph deals with one topic only. A paragraph has the following parts; topic sentence, supporting details, and concluding sentence.
  - Topic sentence expresses the main idea of the paragraph and is usually the first sentence of it.
  - Supporting details are sentences that provide explanation and support to the topic sentence (main idea).
  - Concluding sentence is sentence that provides conclusion or gives a gist of the paragraph.
- The essentials of a good paragraph construction are: a) unity b) a good topical sentence c) logical sequence of thought d) variety e) a precise sum up.
- Help students proofread their own and peer’s writing for errors mentioned in the checklist.
- This practice of proofreading and editing may be carried out for writing activities throughout the book.
- To assess ‘writing skills’ sample rubric is given at the end of the book.

Unit 5

Daffodils
William Wordsworth (1770-1850)

Learning Outcomes:
By the end of this unit students will:
• understand the poet’s purpose and point of view
• construct the meaning of the poem through understanding the key theme
• identify the speaker in the poem
• interpret the imagery in the poem
• paraphrase the poem
• summarize the poem following the summary skills
• respond to the poem by giving a personal point of view
• relate the context of the speaker in the poem to real life situation
• illustrate the use of present and past participles

Pre-reading:
• What is the picture about?
• Have you ever seen daffodils?
• Do you know where daffodils grow?

For the Teacher:
• Conduct pre-reading activity to arouse the students’ interest in the topic.
• Make them predict from the title and the illustration about the contents of the text.
Unit 5: Daffodils

I wandered lonely as a cloud
That floats on high o’er vales and hills,
When all at once I saw a crowd,
A host of golden daffodils;
Beside the lake, beneath the trees,
Fluttering and dancing in the breeze.

Continuous as the stars that shine
And twinkle on the milky way,
They stretched in never-ending line
Along the margin of a bay:
Ten thousand saw I at a glance,
Tossing their heads in sprightly dance.

The waves beside them danced, but they
Out-did the sparkling waves in glee;
A poet could not but be gay,
In such a jocund company!
I gazed—and gazed—but little thought
What wealth the show to me had brought:

For oft, when on my couch I lie
In vacant or in pensive mood,
They flash upon that inward eye
Which is the bliss of solitude;
And then my heart with pleasure fills,
And dances with the daffodils.

For the Teacher:

- While-reading activity may be conducted to interact with the text. More while-reading questions may be asked.
- Recite the poem with proper stress and intonation and note how reading poetry is different from reading prose.
- Explain the use of figurative language and literary techniques such as simile and personification.
- Tell the students about the use of semicolon (;) and exclamation mark (!).
Notes and Comments:

William Wordsworth was born at Cockermouth in Cumberland-UK, on April 7th, 1770. His passion for Nature is well known. That is why he is referred to as the poet of nature. Wordsworth is a true worshipper and ardent lover of nature. It was a creed for him. According to him, nature is a teacher and preacher. In this poem the poet has presented before us the healthy, ennobling, purifying and enduring impact of nature on human beings.

Some of the famous poems by Wordsworth to be read and enjoyed are;

To the Cuckoo, Lucy Grey, The World is too Much with Us, The Two April Mornings, It is a Beauteous Evening, Solitary Reaper, We are Seven

Theme:

We probably have some moments in our life that we replay in our memory – images to which photographs or videos cannot do justice because they cannot capture our feelings. In this poem, William Wordsworth captures both the images and feelings concerned with a special moment in his life. The poem is a tribute to nature and its manifestations in all its glory. It beautifully presents before us not only the attractive and exciting beauty of nature but also the purifying and enduring impact of it on human beings.

Comprehension

A. Answer the following questions.

1. What is the central idea of the poem?
2. What do the daffodils represent in the poem?
3. What “wealth” do memories of the scene give to the poet?
4. List the words that heighten the sound effect in the poem.
5. How has the poet heightened the impact of the poem by using the figurative language?

For the Teacher:

- Help students create and deliver class presentation on the topic by following the guidelines given above.
Figures of Speech

Simile
A simile is a figure of speech in which like or as is used to make a comparison between two ideas that are basically dissimilar.

Examples: a. Her eyes twinkled like stars. b. She was as busy as a bee.

Metaphor
If we write a comparison between two things and omit the word 'like' then we are using a metaphor.

Examples: a. He proved a lion in the fight. b. His heart is red, red rose.

Personification
It is a figurative language technique where an object or idea is given human characteristics or qualities.

Imagery
Imagery is the construction of details used to create mental images in the mind of the reader through the visual sense as well as the senses of touch, smell, taste and sound.

Examples of imagery:

visual  –  huge trees in the thick and dark forest auditory –  the rustling of leaves smell   –  scent of apples taste   –  sweet and juicy oranges touch   –  rugged and rough path

A. In “Daffodils” similes are used in stanzas 1 and 2. Can you tell what two things are compared in each of these stanzas?

B. Pick out one example of personification from the poem.

For the Teacher:

- Help students analyze how a poet uses language to appeal to the senses through the use of figurative language including similes, metaphors and imagery.
- Help them recognize literary techniques such as personification.
C. Here is a list of a few Similes, Metaphors and Personifications. Can you identify them? Write ‘S’ for Simile, ‘M’ for Metaphor and ‘P’ for Personification.

Connotation

Connotation means the attitude and feeling associated with a word as opposed to its literal meaning.

Example:

- solitude: a positive connotation
- lonely: a negative connotation

B. Specify positive and negative connotation of each of the following:

i. gaze: __________________________
   stare: __________________________

ii. shine: __________________________
    glare __________________________

iii. hoard: __________________________
     collect __________________________

C. Use the words given in activity B in sentences of your own.

Grammar

Collective Noun

A singular noun, such as committee or team, that refers to a group of people, animals or things is called collective noun. For example:

Crowd in this poem refers to a collection or a large number of daffodils.

A. Write the collective nouns of the following.

a. a collection of ships
   b. a collection of singers
   c. a collection of cattle
   d. a collection of soldiers

---

For the Teacher:

- Help students analyze how a poet uses language to affect meaning through the use of synonyms with different connotations.
- Demonstrate the use of collective noun.
B. Underline the prepositions of place in the poem.

C. Use the following prepositions in sentences of your own.

    behind, beside, next to, under, over, along, across

Conjunctions
Conjunctions join words and sentences. There are two kinds of conjunctions.

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Types</th>

</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

D. Fill in the blanks with appropriate conjunctions.

1. He ran fast ____________ he missed the train.

2. Wait ____________ I return.

3. Work hard ____________ you should fail.

4. I did not come ____________ you did not invite me.

5. You will get a prize ____________ you deserve it.

E. Use any five coordinating conjunctions and any five subordinating conjunctions in sentences of your own.

For the Teacher:

- Illustrate the use of conjunctions.
Use of Present and Past Particiles

Participle
A participle is a verb form used as an adjective to modify nouns and pronouns.

Present Participle
All the present participles end in -ing:
Examples: the laughing lady the falling temperature
           the stinging remark

Past Participle
The past participles of all regular verbs end in -ed:
Examples: the tired dancer
          the injured player
          the cracked vase

However, irregular verbs have various past participle endings (such as thrown, ridden, built, and gone).

F. Underline the participles in the following sentences.

1. He was so shocked due to the accident that he could not speak.
2. The galloping horse scared the child.
3. I don’t want that burnt toast.
4. Don’t be frightened. That dog doesn’t bite.
5. The lorry was carrying stolen goods.
6. Everybody was excited preparing the things for the trip.
7. If the children are bored, take them to the park.

G. Make five sentences using the present participles and five sentences using the past participles.

For the Teacher:
- Help students use the Present and Past Participles as adjectives.
Unit 5: Daffodils

Writing Skills

Paraphrasing
Paraphrasing is re-writing a poet's utterances or ideas in one's own words without altering the meaning of the original. Thus a stanza takes the shape of the prose. It is of the same length as the original because the purpose is to re-phrase without going into any unnecessary details.

A. Paraphrase the last stanza of the poem.

Summary Writing

A summary is a shorter (condensed) version of an oral, visual or written text. Following are the four basic steps in preparing a summary, providing a logical and organized approach to the process of summary writing.

1. Reading:
   A good summary depends to a large extent on good reading, to understand the original text.

2. Outlining:
   Outlining involves, making notes that may help you compose a summary such as noting author’s purpose, topic sentence, supporting details and main idea.

For the Teacher:
- Help students use paraphrasing skills to paraphrase the stanza by marking thought groups in the stanza then restating the message in simple prose, by replacing poetic words with simple ones.
- Help students understand and apply the summary writing skills to write summary of the poem.
3. Checking:

At this stage the accuracy of outline notes is judged by comparing them with the original passage. Necessary changes can be made in it at this stage.

4. Writing:

At this stage a few necessary changes if any are made. A review of the summarized version is important to make the summary accurate, fluent, and error free.

B. Write the summary of the poem “Daffodils”.

Express Satisfaction/Dissatisfaction

Useful phrases to express satisfaction:
  a. Yes please.
  b. Really! You did very well.
  c. I am happy to find this out.
  d. I trusted you a lot and you proved it.

Useful phrases to express dissatisfaction:
  a. No please.
  b. I am sorry but I am not happy with the result.
  c. You have disappointed me.
  d. I regret giving you the responsibility.

A. Use the language of satisfaction and dissatisfaction and act out role-plays on the following situations.

1. Father is dissatisfied with the performance of his son in the matriculation exam. However, the son shows satisfaction over his result.

2. You are satisfied with your performance in the debates. Your teacher however expresses dissatisfaction and asks you to improve your presentation skills.

3. Your friend is satisfied with getting cricket match tickets. On the contrary, you express dissatisfaction on the types of seats allotted to you in the stadium.

For the Teacher:

• Help students use appropriate expressions to show satisfaction and dissatisfaction politely.
Unit 6

The Quaid's Vision and Pakistan

Learning Outcomes:

By the end of this unit students will:
- know about a national pride
- discuss the qualities of a good orator
- write about a personality
- learn participatory citizenship and peaceful co-existence
- illustrate use of kinds of adverb, infinitives and gerunds
- know the use of conditional sentences

Pre-reading:
- What do you infer about the text from the given title and the picture?
- Share the information you already have about Quaid-e-Azam.
- What was the Quaid’s role in the freedom movement of Pakistan?

For the Teacher:
- Conduct pre-reading activities to assess the students’ prior knowledge and arouse their interest in the topic.
- Explain to the students the leadership qualities of Quaid-e-Azam.
- Tell them the struggle he made for the achievement of Pakistan.
1. During the early and difficult times of Pakistan’s emergence, Quaid-e-Azam Muhammad Ali Jinnah, undertook a countrywide tour. He aimed at raising people’s spirit.

   “Do not be overwhelmed with the enormity of the task,” he said in a speech at Lahore, “There are many examples in the history of young nations, building themselves up by sheer determination and force of character. You are made of sterling material and second to none. Keep up your morale. Do not be afraid of death. We should face it bravely to save the honour of Pakistan and Islam. Do your duty and have faith in Pakistan. It has come to stay.”

2. The entire journey of the great leader’s struggle for a separate homeland for the Muslims of the subcontinent was based on the pivot of the Muslim unity and the oneness as a nation. He talked about Pakistan in such clear terms that even a common man could understand it.

   ”We are a nation,” he affirmed three years before the birth of Pakistan, “with our own distinctive culture and civilization, language and literature, art and architecture, names and nomenclature, sense of values and proportion, legal laws and moral codes, customs and calendar, history and traditions, aptitude and ambitions — in short, we have our own distinctive outlook of life.”

3. The ideology of Pakistan was based on the fundamental principle that the Muslims are an independent nation. Any attempt to merge their national and political identity will be strongly resisted.

4. Quaid-e-Azam was a man of strong faith and belief. He firmly believed that the new emerging state of Pakistan based on the Islamic principles would reform the society as a whole. In his Eid message, September 1945, Quaid-e-Azam said, “Islam is a complete code regulating the whole Muslim society, every department of life collectively and individually.”

5. Today the Quaid’s Pakistan is facing numerous challenges. We have forgotten how much struggle the Muslims had made under the dynamic leadership of Quaid-e-Azam Muhammad Ali Jinnah. We can overcome our present difficulties by following the Quaid’s golden motto, “Faith, Unity and Discipline”. We can make our nation strong by remembering his advice to the youth, “It is now up to you to work, work and work; and we are bound to succeed.”

Theme:
The theme is the national pride and the role of the hero in the art of nation-building. Our great leader Quaid-e-Azam was profoundly concerned for his nation as well as for Pakistan. His goal was not only the achievement of Pakistan but also to stabilize the nation and the state simultaneously. For the accomplishment of this mission he undertook countrywide tours at the cost of his health. He strived for the unity of the masses and the welfare of Pakistan and its people.

For the Teacher:
- Explain to them how much he was concerned for the unity among the Muslims of the subcontinent.
- Explain to them how we can overcome our national problems by following his advice.
Glossary:

aptitude -------------- natural ability fundamental -------------- basic or primary principle enormity -------------- enormousness overwhelmed -------------- affected deeply pivot -------------- central point numerous -------------- many sterling -------------- of the highest quality

Oral Activity:

Discuss the following in groups.

a. Why did Quaid-e-Azam ignore his ever failing health?

b. Why did he wish for a complete harmony and unity among the people of Pakistan?

c. What can be the outcome of ignoring the Quaid’s advice?

Comprehension

A. Answer the following questions.

1. How much confidence did Quaid-e-Azam have in his nation?

2. What was the Quaid’s concept of our nation?

3. What was the ideology of Pakistan in view of Quaid-e-Azam?

4. What can be the possible solution to our present problems?

5. How can we become a strong nation?

For the Teacher:

- Help students summarize the main points of the discussion for the benefit of the whole group.
A. Encircle the option for the underlined words that relates to the text.

1. “We are a nation,” he affirmed three years before the birth of Pakistan.
   a. told

   b. scared
   c. squared up

5. We should face it bravely to save the honour of Pakistan and Islam.
   a. repair
   b. cope with
   c. correct

B. Consult a thesaurus and find the synonyms of the following words.

   morale, voyage, ambition, nomenclature, identity, distinctive, emergence, struggle, numerous, strong, ideology

C. Write the antonyms of the following words.

   confidence, honour, belief, separate, unity, political

D. Use the following idioms in sentences.

   bits and pieces, man in the street, raising spirit, pass through, fall a prey
What is a denotation?

Denotation is the literal or dictionary meanings of the words. For example, the word ‘snake’ in a dictionary will have the denotative meaning scaly and legless. The denotation, therefore, refers to the most basic or specific meaning of a word.

What is a connotation?

Connotation, on the other hand, refers to the idea that is suggested by or associated with a word. The connotative meaning of a word exist together with the denotative meaning. The connotations for the word ‘snake’ could include evil or danger. It has the connotation of someone who cannot be trusted.

Connotations can be positive or negative. For example, the word ‘thin’ can have a positive connotation of ‘smart’ and a negative connotation of ‘skinny’.

E. For each of the words given in the column, give one similar meaning (denotation) and one negative and positive connotation.

A. Identify the primary and secondary stress in the following words.

unwritten, unwrap, Abraham, president, teach, ponder

---

For the Teacher:

- Explain to the students the difference between the primary and secondary stress.
Adverbs

A word that modifies the meaning of a verb, an adjective, or another adverb is called an adverb. Adverbs usually come in the following positions in a sentence.

Example: She was singing beautifully (adverb of manner) at a concert (adverb of place) last Sunday (adverb of time).

Infinitives

a. You are free to go to your masjid.
b. He made the people work.

The words given in bold have no subject. We say that to go is the infinitive of the verb. Sometimes “to” is used as in example “a”, sometimes infinitive without to is used as in example “b”.

Gerunds

A gerund is that form of the verb which ends in –ing, and has the function of a noun.

a. Painting is a good fun.
b. I like painting.
c. My favourite hobby is painting.

In these sentences painting does the work of a noun forming the subject, object and complement.

Conditionals: Type III (unfulfilled condition)

Conditionals of this type say that something did not happen because a certain condition was not fulfilled.

Example: Had we paid heed to his warnings and advice, we would not have got entangled into petty pursuits that have brought forth only disunity and disharmony among our ranks.
A. Find the kinds of adverb in the unit.
   1. Adverb of manner
   2. Adverb of place
   3. Adverb of time
   4. Adverb of frequency
   5. Adverb of degree

B. Write five sentences using adverbs of manner, place and time in the correct sequence.

C. Make sentences using the following verbs followed by the infinitives.
   saw, promised, wanted, began, asked, told, decided

D. Complete these phrases by adding gerunds and use them in sentences.
   good at ___________  accused of ___________ sad at ___________  tired of ___________

E. Complete the following conditionals.
   1. If you had studied hard ___________________.
   2. If you had come to me ___________________.

---

For the Teacher:

- Help them practice the dialogue in pairs with appropriate stress and intonation.
- Illustrate the use of adverbs and kinds of adverbs.
- Illustrate the use of infinitives and infinitive phrases, gerunds and gerund phrases.
Unit 7

Sultan Ahmad Masjid

Learning Outcomes:

By the end of this unit students will:
- know about the Blue Masjid (Istanbul – Turkey)
- appreciate the Muslim architecture
- utilize the dictionary skills/thesaurus skills
- recognize varying positions of adverbs in sentences
- illustrate the use of the present perfect continuous tense
- know about the essentials of descriptive writing

Pre-reading:

- Name some of the historical places in Pakistan.
- Tell the names of some important masajid in Pakistan.
- What do you know about Turkey?

For the Teacher:

- Conduct pre-reading activity to arouse the students’ interest in the topic.
1. The Sultan Ahmad Masjid is one of the most impressive monuments in the world. It is also known as the Blue Masjid because of the blue tiles that embellish its interior. Situated in Istanbul, the largest city in Turkey and the capital of the Ottoman Empire from 1453 to 1923, it has become the most popular tourist attraction.

2. It was constructed between 1609 and 1616, during the rule of Ahmad I. As was the custom, this masjid like the other masajid of the time, comprises a tomb of the founder, a madrassah and a hospice.

3. The construction of the masjid started in 1609. The royal architect Sedefhar Mehmat Aga, was appointed by the Sultan as in-charge of the project. The opening ceremony was held in 1616. Unfortunately, the Sultan could not see the completion of the masjid in his life. It was completed in the reign of his successor Mustafa I.

4. The Blue Masjid reflects the architectural style of both the Ottoman masjid and Byzantine church. Hagia Sophia, a masjid, one of the wonders of the Muslim architecture, was also kept in view as a model. The Blue Masjid even today is considered to be unmatched in splendour, majesty and size.

5. The masjid has a spacious forecourt surrounded by a continuous vaulted arcade. It has ablution facilities on both the sides. In the centre, there is a fountain which is rather small in contrast with the magnitude of the courtyard. A heavy iron chain is hung at the upper part of the court entrance at

For the Teacher:

- While-reading activity may be conducted to interact with the text. More while-reading questions may be asked.
- Explain the contribution of the Muslim rulers to art and architecture.
- Briefly tell about the Ottoman Empire.
- Give an introduction of Ahmad I.
the western side. This side was meant for the Sultan alone. The chain was put there so that the Sultan had to lower his head every time he entered the court. It was the symbolic gesture to ensure the humility of the ruler in the face of the divine power.

6. The interior of the masjid at the lower level is lined with more than 20,000 hand-made ceramic tiles in more than 50 different tulip designs. At the gallery level, the design becomes flamboyant with representation of flowers, fruit and cypresses.

7. The upper level of the interior is adorned with blue paint. More than 200 stained glass windows with intricate designs allow natural light to brighten up its interior and the chandeliers further illuminate it with their glow. The decorations include A’yat from the Holy Quran. The floors are covered with carpets.

8. The most important element in the interior of the masjid is the mehrab, which is made of finely carved marble. To the right of the mehrab is a richly decorated pulpit. The masjid is so designed that even when it is most crowded, everyone in the masjid can listen to and look at the Imam.

9. The royal room is situated at the south east corner. It has its own pulpit that used to be decorated with jade and roses.

10. The Blue Masjid has six minarets. Four minarets stand one each at the four corners of the masjid. Each of these pencil shaped minarets has three balconies, while the other two at the end of the forecourt, have only two balconies.

11. In the evening, a large number of tourists and Turks gather in the park facing the masjid to listen the call to the evening namaz. The masjid is flooded with lights and so are the hearts of the believers with divine love. Though much has been lost of the Blue Masjid over the years yet it has not lost the love of its visitors. The masjid is still one of the most visited monuments of the world.
Theme:
The theme of this unit is to highlight the significance of the Islamic architecture. The world of Islam has a splendid heritage of art and architecture in which they excelled throughout the history. Masjids have always been the prominent feature of the Islamic architecture. The essay not only highlights the glory of the Sultan Masjid but also throws light on the skill and ability of the architects of the time.

Glossary:

| impressive     | ----------------- | remarkable       |
| hospice        | ----------------- | an inn, a short living place for travellers |
| embellish      | ----------------- | decorate         |

3. The teacher was late. (hardly ever)
4. We are tired by the end of the day. (usually)
5. I have posted a letter to them. (just)
6. He did his work. (carefully)

Degrees of Comparison

Some adverbs, like adjectives also have three degrees of comparison.

Example

The masjid is so designed that even when it is most crowded, everyone in the masjid can listen to and look at the Imam.

The masjid still remains to be one of the most visited monuments of the world.

B. Complete this table with appropriate degree of adverbs.

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Positive degree</th>
<th>Comparative degree</th>
<th>Superlative degree</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>kept much</td>
<td></td>
<td></td>

<td></td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

C. Use the above degrees of comparison in sentences as given in example.

1. They came early this morning.
2. I came earlier than him.
3. He came earliest of all.

For the Teacher:

- Help students recognize varying positions of adverbs in the sentences according to their kinds and importance.
- Help them to use the degrees of comparison of adverbs.
Present Perfect Continuous Tense

The structure of the Present Perfect Continuous Tense is:

Subject + auxiliary verb + auxiliary verb + main verb

has/have been base + ing

There are basically two uses of the Present Perfect Continuous Tense:

1. An action that has just stopped or recently stopped

We use the Present Perfect Continuous Tense to talk about an action that started in the past and stopped recently.

Examples

1. I'm tired [now] because I've been running.
2. Why is the grass wet [now]? Has it been raining?
3. You don't understand [now] because you haven't been listening.

2. An action continuing up to now

We use the Present Perfect Continuous Tense to talk about an action that started in the past and is continuing now. This is often used with for or since.

We often use for and since with the Present Perfect Continuous Tense.

- We use ‘for’ to talk about a period of time - 5 minutes, 2 weeks, 6 years.
- We use ‘since’ to talk about a point in past time - 9 o'clock, 1st January, Monday.

Examples

1. I have been reading for 2 hours. [I am still reading now.]
2. We’ve been studying since 9 o'clock. [We're still studying now.]
3. For how long have you been learning English? [You are still learning now.]
D. Put for or since in the blanks.
   1. I have been studying ________ 3 hours.
   2. I have been watching TV ________ 7pm.
   3. Tara hasn't been feeling well ________ 2 weeks.
   4. Tara hasn't been visiting us ________ March.
   5. He has been playing football ________ a long time.
   6. He has been living in Bangkok ________ he left the school.

E. Make five sentences using the present perfect continuous tense and convert them into negative and interrogative sentences.

Writing Skills

A. Write down the summary of the unit. Focus on the following points.
   • history of the masjid
   • architecture
   • importance

B. Describe in your own words the architecture of any historical place in Pakistan.

Oral Communication Skills

Litter Bug!

Ahmad: Hey! Did you see what that boy did?
Naeem: Yeah! He threw a plastic bag into the street. He doesn’t care about our environment. He’s a litter bug.

Ahmad: Do you care about our environment?
Naeem: Yes, I do. There’s too much pollution. Everybody should care about environment.

Ahmad: I agree. “Hey, litter bug! Pick up that trash”!
Naeem: Look! He’s picking it up! Thanks for caring about the environment!

For the Teacher:

• Help students make a mind map for summary writing to develop focus on their writing.
• Make pairs and give students good practice in presenting the dialogue with proper stress and intonation patterns.
Unit 8

Stopping by Woods on a Snowy Evening
Robert Frost (1874 – 1963)

Learning Outcomes:

By the end of this unit students will:
- construct the meaning of the poem through understanding the key theme
- identify the speaker in the poem
- identify alliteration in the poem
- interpret the imagery in the poem
- paraphrase and summarize the poem
- respond to the poem by giving a personal point of view
- use adjective phrases and adverb phrases

Pre-reading:

- Does the title reflect the theme of the poem?
- What makes nature poems appealing to you?

For the Teacher:

- Help students read the poem aloud with proper stress and intonation, then read it silently to infer the theme of the poem.
Whose woods these are I think I know. His house is in the village though; He will not see me stopping here To watch his woods fill up with snow.

My little horse must think it queer 5 To stop without a farmhouse near Between the woods and frozen lake The darkest evening of the year.

He gives his harness bells a shake To ask if there is some mistake. The only other sound’s the sweep Of easy wind and downy flake.

The woods are lovely, dark and deep, But I have promises to keep, And miles to go before I sleep, 15 And miles to go before I sleep.

Notes and Comments:

Robert Frost was a famous American poet. He was born in San Francisco on March 26, 1874. He was an internationally acclaimed poet who won the famous Pulitzer Prize for four times. His poetry focuses on the theme of nature in which he embedded the contemporary and philosophical issues of his time. He died in Boston on January 29, 1963.

Other poems by Robert Frost:

Birches, After Apple Picking, Mending Walls, Desert Places, Home Burial, The Road not Taken

Theme:

The poem points out at the attractive and exciting beauty of nature and simultaneously hints at the need to carry on with the daily affairs of life. The world of fantasy is very inviting. But one must maintain balance between the world of reality and imagination.

For the Teacher:

- While-reading activity may be conducted to interact with the poem. More while-reading questions may be asked.
Glossary:

- woods  ------------------  forest
- queer  ------------------  strange
- harness  ---------------  control
- downy  ------------------  soft, feathery
- flake  ------------------  very small loose mass of snow

Comprehension

A. Answer the following questions.

1. Who is the speaker in the poem?
2. Whom does the speaker refer to in the first stanza of the poem?
3. Why does the speaker stop on ‘the darkest evening of the year’?
4. Why does the horse impatiently await the next move of his master?
5. The speaker in the poem is captivated by the beauty of nature. Why doesn’t he stop for long to enjoy nature’s beauty?

B. Some statements are directly supported by the poem, some are inferences based on evidences from the text while some are not supported by any evidence. Put a tick in the right column.

<thead>
<tr>
<th>Statements</th>
<th>Directly supported by the poem</th>
<th>Inference based on some evidence from the poem</th>

<td>It is a cold and dark winter.</td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>The speaker knows the owner of the woods.</td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

For the Teacher:

- Explain to the students that sometimes ideas in writing are not stated directly but are given in the form of clues. The reader draws meanings by carefully studying these clues which are called evidences. When meaning is not stated directly but is reached through examining evidences, it is called an inference.

C. Paraphrase the following.

The woods are lovely, dark and deep,
But I have promises to keep,
And miles to go before I sleep,
And miles to go before I sleep.

Vocabulary

Alliteration
Alliteration refers to the repetition of the same consonant sound in words which are used closely together in the poem.

Examples:
- Whose woods .....
- His house .....
- see me stopping .....

Imagery
Imagery is the construction of details used to create mental images in the mind of the reader through the visual sense as well as the sense of touch, smell, taste and sound.
Unit 8: Stopping by Woods on a Snowy Evening

Examples of imagery: visual - huge trees in the thick and dark forest

   d. We are tired by the end of the day usually.

Writing Skills

1. Write a paragraph on any social issue/topic.
   - Write a clear topic sentence.
   - Supporting details (examples, definition, comparison, clarification or explanation) to develop the main idea.
   - Use appropriate pronoun - antecedent relationship and transitional devices within the paragraph.
   - Order of arranging details, e.g. general to specific, sequential, etc.

2. Write any expository composition showing comparison and contrast between things, events, situations, places, actions, ideas or problems.
3. Write an essay on a general subject:

   - With a clear introductory paragraph.
   - Provide key ideas which prove, explain or support the central thought.
   - Use separate paragraphs for each key idea.
   - Incorporate evidence (facts, quotations), examples (analogies, anecdotes, etc), or different views (elaborating an idea/opinion) to support each key idea.
   - Use appropriate transitional devices to connect ideas within and between paragraphs.
   - Add a closing or summary paragraph with a synthesis of central idea, synthesis of each supporting idea, and a general concluding statement.
   - Use correct conventions of grammar and punctuation.
   - Use appropriate vocabulary.

Oral Communication Skills

1. Prepare a class presentation on various aspects of nature as described in the poem “Daffodils”.

2. Prepare a class presentation to discuss “Do we follow the principles laid down by the Quaid?” Give arguments in favour and against and also give a conclusion.

3. Prepare a presentation on “The Muslim Architecture”.

4. Discuss the significance of imagery in the poem “Stopping by Woods on a Snowy Evening”.
Unit 9

All is not Lost

Learning Outcomes:

By the end of this unit students will:

- scan the text to look for the contextual meanings
- recognize the rules of changing the narration of statement, requests/ orders and questions
- know the use of compound prepositions
- illustrate the use of past perfect continuous tense
- organize the ideas in a clear, structured and logical manner

Pre-reading:

- Which idea comes to your mind when you look at the picture and the title of the story?
- What do you think is the role of a nurse in the treatment of a patient?

For the Teacher:

- Conduct pre-reading activity to arouse the students’ interest in the topic.
- Make them predict from the title and the illustration about the contents of the text.
1. It was the beginning of my profession as a nurse. I worked in the Intensive Care Unit (ICU) of the neurology ward. As a young professional, I wished to save the world. I was excited to see the patients making quick recoveries from devastating accidents, yet I was pained to nurse those who were struck with acute neurological disorder.

2. One day, standing at the bedside of a young patient, I wondered if she could make the same recovery like others. Hira had received severe head and spinal injuries as she was hit by a speeding bus while crossing a busy road. I took her lifeless arms in my hands and tried to do several exercises on her but in vain. Also, I asked her younger sister to come and talk to her, thinking that the voice of a near and dear one might activate the nearly dead neurons. She could see but not talk. Her eyes showed a certain helplessness. I could read her mind through her eyes. Perhaps she wanted to say, “Please help me.”

3. A fellow nurse came near me and asked, “Rahila, what are you doing? Fighting a lost battle?” I was shocked at first to hear a colleague making a hopeless comment. Then I replied, “I’m trying to make her brain process by her sister’s voice. Also, I am doing my best to ensure that her arms and legs get proper exercise. This might help her walk like a normal person.” Meanwhile, a senior doctor on duty, walked in. He gave me an ironic smile and said, “If you spend most of your duty hours on one patient, we will have to recruit more nurses to attend the other patients. Please go and see the other patients. We do not have much hope for her. I don’t think that she can ever walk again.”

For the Teacher:

- While-reading activity may be conducted to interact with the text. More while-reading questions may be asked.
4. I was upset. The advice to leave the patient unattended did not seem right. I knew that she had suffered from major neural damage, but she needed to be given a chance. An inner voice somewhere within me spoke, “Try once for her.”

5. I went to the senior nurse and told her that I wanted to help this patient and work with her more closely. The senior nurse looked at me with utter surprise and remarked that she had orders from the doctor in-charge to shift her to the general ward. The doctors thought that she was a hopeless case and the bed must be spared for other patients. I was shocked to hear this. The patient’s family also requested me to help them fight the case. Something needed to be done. I could not leave my patient fighting a lost battle on her own. I made up my mind to risk my career and help the patient. I requested the senior doctors to allow me attend this young helpless patient. Somehow, I was able to make the patient stay in the ICU.

6. I continued to work on Hira. But she was not making much recovery. I felt as helpless as she was to see her lie on bed in a miserable state. Could I be able to justify my stance before the senior doctors? I did not lose hope. I continued to work with patience and kept doing exercises with her. Gradually, I could see her making a slight recovery. One day, I was thrilled to see, she lifted her little finger. All was not lost!

7. I was sent on a three months training course to Karachi. I made all possible attempts to leave my patient in good hands. I returned after three months to see my patient’s bed taken up by another. My feet froze to the ground. I did not have the courage to ask, “What happened?”

8. As I stood near the bed with several questions popping in my mind, I felt a gentle pat on my shoulder. I turned around and see a young woman, smiling at me. “Are you looking for your patient?” she said and gave me a big hug. “Thank you for everything you did! I know you did not allow them to make me lead a crippled life.”

9. I stood still, until her family came around with big smiles on their faces. Thanks to Allah, she was my patient, standing and walking on her own feet. I could not recognize her without the machinery and tubes around her body. She walked on crutches, which she would leave in a few months. I was glad that my efforts bore fruit. But most of all, I was happy that Allah Almighty had helped me win a lost battle.

10. She and her family had entered into a considerable bond of friendship with me. I was humbled by their sense of gratitude towards me. I felt a sense of renewed strength in me. ‘Where there is a will there is a way.’ I was proud to be a nurse.

Theme:

Some people consider nursing as an underrated profession. It is not being valued like some other professions. So, this story highlights the importance of nursing profession and how the sincere effort and strong determination of a nurse saves a patient from a near crippling stage.
Unit 9: All is not Lost

Glossary:

- neurology: study of nerves and nerve cells
- devastating: shocking
- neurons: nerve cells
- recruit: employ
- popping in: appearing
- crutches: support
- gradually: slowly
- miserable: very unhappy

Oral Activity:

Form groups and discuss the following points.

a. How important is the nursing profession?
b. Is the profession of nursing valued in Pakistan?

Prepare a group presentation on “The Problems of Nursing Profession”.

Comprehension

A. Answer the following questions.

1. Why did the nurse ask Hira’s sister to come and talk to her?
2. Why did the nurse disagree with the doctor’s point of view?
3. Why did the nurse ask herself the question: “Could I be able to justify my stance before the senior doctors?”
4. Describe some qualities of the nurse in the story.
5. Why did the nurse say, “Where there is a will there is a way”?

For the Teacher:

- Engage students in a discussion about the importance of the nursing profession.
- Stress the point that all professions are noble and important, we should do justice to them like the nurse in the story.
B. Rearrange these sentences in correct sequence.

1. We do not have much hope for her.
2. As a young professional, I wished to save the world.
3. I could not leave my patient fighting a lost battle on her own.
4. I was proud to be a nurse.
5. One day I was thrilled to see, she lifted her little finger. All was not lost!
6. The advice to leave the patient unattended did not seem right.
7. Thanks to Allah, she was my patient, standing and walking on her own feet.
8. One day, standing at the bedside of a young patient, I wondered if she could make the same recovery like others.

Direct and Indirect Narration

Direct speech means the exact words that someone says. These are enclosed with quotation marks, which are called inverted commas.

Examples
- a. I replied, “I’m trying to make her brain process by her sister’s voice.”
- b. “Are you looking for your patient?” she said.
- c. The doctor said, “Please go and see other patients.”

Indirect speech does not consist of the actual words of the speaker but conveys the full sense of what he said.

Examples
- a. I replied that I was trying to make her brain process by her sister’s voice.
- b. She asked me whether I was looking for my patient.
- c. The doctor requested me to go and see other patients.

B. Recapitulate your previous knowledge about Direct and Indirect Narration and answer the following questions.

1. Can you identify the tenses of the reported speech of above examples?
2. What are the rules to change direct statements into indirect statements?
3. What are the rules to change interrogative sentences?
4. What are the rules to change imperative sentences into indirect speech?

For the Teacher:

- Help students recognize the rules of changing the narration of statements, imperative sentences and questions.
C. Rewrite paragraph 3 of the unit in the Indirect Speech.

D. Change the narration of the following sentences.

1. He said to him, “What are you reading?”
2. He said, “You have made a mistake.”
3. She said, “Do not waste your time.”
4. He said to me, “Will you watch a drama tonight?”
5. She said to her sister, “Please listen to me.”

Compound Prepositions

Compound prepositions are two or more words working together as one word and functioning as a preposition.

Example

He couldn’t attend the seminar because of his brother’s marriage.

E. Complete the sentences with the given compound prepositions.

along with, according to, in front of, away from, because of, instead of

1. ____________ my teacher, it is a great book.

2. He had to retire ____________ ill health.

3. I am standing ____________ the school building.

4. He is coming ____________ his friends.

5. I am ____________ my home right now.

6. He left for Sialkot ____________ Lahore.

Past Perfect Continuous Tense

The structure of the Past Perfect Continuous Tense is:

Subject + auxiliary verb + auxiliary verb + main verb

had been base + ing

Use of the Past Perfect Continuous Tense

The Past Perfect Continuous Tense is like the Past Perfect Tense, but it expresses longer actions in the past before another action in the past.

Example

Rahim started waiting at 9am. I arrived at 11am. When I arrived, Rahim had been waiting for two hours.

We also use for and since with the Past Perfect Continuous Tense.

F. Write the Past Perfect Continuous forms of the verbs given in brackets.

1. Saleem was sitting on the chair, out of breath. He ________________ (run).

2. We ________________ (walk) along the road for 20 minutes when a car stopped and the driver offered us a lift.

3. I ________________ (do) my homework for two hours when my friend came.

4. They ________________ (take) exercise since morning.

5. The patient ________________ (cry) with pain when the doctor arrived.

G. Make five sentences using the Past Perfect Continuous Tense and convert them into negative and interrogative sentences.
Writing Skills

A. Write a summary of the story in your own words retelling the nurse’s struggle and how the problem was solved.
B. Write a personal narrative, focusing on the following points.

1. Include choice of period in your life.
2. Include clear statement of personality traits at that time.
3. Include significant details and an incident to portray personality.

After writing a narrative piece of writing, revise and edit according to the checklist given below.

- Have I chosen only the most interesting events in my life?
- Do I have enough interesting story about these events?
- Have I organized the events in a chronological order?
- Have I kept a conversational tone in the first person?
- Do I have a strong, satisfying conclusion?
- Have I checked spellings and punctuation marks?
Unit 10

Drug Addiction

Learning Outcomes:

By the end of this unit students will:

- become aware of the dangers of drugs
- recognize the sensitivity of crime and learn to say “no”
- chalk out a prevention plan for drug victims
- raise awareness about the benefits of rehabilitation centers
- guess the meanings of words from the context
- identify and demonstrate the use of relative pronouns
- identify and use adjective clauses in sentences

Pre-reading:

- Read the title of the text and discuss the effects of drug addiction.
- What message does this picture convey?
- How can you help a drug addict lead a normal life?

For the Teacher:

- Conduct pre-reading activity to arouse the students’ interest in the topic.
- Make them predict from the title and illustration about the contents of the text.
Unit 10: Drug Addiction

1. Drug addiction is a common problem all over the world today. There are many forms of drug addiction, but the most dangerous of all is the absolute dependence on it. Long-term use of drugs causes permanent mental and physical sickness. Some kinds of drugs that cause disturbance of mind and body are heroin, marijuana, tobacco, valium, cocaine and alcohol. Are the drug addicts aware of the dangers of drugs?

2. Drug addiction is caused by the environmental factors. A few important environmental factors that may cause drug addiction are bad peer influence and troubled domestic background. When young people remain in bad company and do experiments in the name of adventure, they may fall a prey to addiction. The people who are dissatisfied and discontented with their lives may also resort to drug addiction in order to seek an escape from responsibilities of life. Which environmental factors are responsible for drug addiction?

3. The most important measure to be taken in this regard is the rehabilitation and recovery of a drug addict. In many countries, including Pakistan, addicts, their families and friends consider it a taboo to share their problem with others. They feel embarrassed to talk about it for fear of being declared an outcast. This not only makes the cure difficult but in most of the cases the addicts die due to lack of timely treatment and counselling.

4. Rehabilitation centres are the best places for the recovery process of the addicts. Complete medical support and guidance is provided to these people in these centres. Drug abusers, therefore, must be taken to proper

For the Teacher:

- While-reading activity may be conducted to interact with the text. More while-reading questions may be asked.
and certified rehabilitation centres where proper treatment and cure is available for them. However, this requires rapid identification of the problem of drug addiction and full cooperation of the victims with the team of these centres.

5. The other factor that contributes to the rehabilitation of the drug victim is proper counselling. The sooner it is done the better it is for the victim. The counselling process must continue even after the drug abuser is rehabilitated because of the dangers of a relapse. Doctors, family and friends must continue to critically watch and counsel the victim for better motivation and adjustment.

6. Drug addiction is really a very serious threat to any society. In Pakistan alone, there are almost five million drug addicts. Addicts undergo numerous economic, social and health problems. The governments all over the world have been trying to eliminate drug addiction from society but still more efforts are needed to completely wipe it out. This can only be made possible if the people become increasingly aware of the threats that drugs pose. They should vow firmly to live a healthy and meaningful life.

Theme:

The theme revolves around the harmful effects of drug addiction. It also refers to the importance of the rehabilitation centers in treating drug addicts. It highlights the vital role that counselling plays in making people live a healthy life.

Unit 10: Drug Addiction

Grammar

Relative Pronoun

A relative pronoun joins ideas. It gives additional information about the subject or object e.g. who, which, that, whom, whose.

Example

The people who are addicted to drugs undergo many serious problems.

Adjective Clause

An adjective clause is a group of words which does the work of an adjective. It usually begins with a relative pronoun such as who, whom, that, which, whose.

Example

The umbrella which has a broken handle is mine.

A. Use ‘who, whom, that, which, whose’ in the following sentences.

1. These are the colour pencils ______ I want to buy.
2. I know the woman _______ child was hurt.
3. The old lady ______ we met in the shop was Amina’s grandmother.
4. This is the girl ___ stood first in the class.
5. Shazia likes the candies ____ her father brought from the market.

B. Use the following relative pronouns in sentences.

who, which, that, whom, whose

For the Teacher:

- Help students identify and demonstrate the use of relative pronoun.
- Help them identify and use adjective clauses.
C. Underline adjective clauses in the following sentences. Also encircle the relative pronouns.

1. He tells a tale that sounds untrue.
2. People who eat too much die early.
3. I met the woman whose son had helped me.
4. He is the man whom we all respect.
5. I have an urgent piece of work which I must do.

D. Write suitable adjective clauses.

1. Where is the book __________________?
2. Any student __________________ will be punished.
3. I know the woman __________________.
4. That is the girl __________________.
5. Where is the man __________________.

E. Pick out three passive sentences from the unit. Change these sentences into active voice.

Writing Skills

A. Summarize the unit “Drug Addiction” with the help of following mind map.

Cause/Factor I

Cause/Factor II

Effects

Solution
```

B. Write an essay on “Drug Abuse, a Threat to Society”. (170 - 200 words)

For the Teacher:

- Help students first make a mind map to develop focus on their writing.
Unit 11

Noise in the Environment

Learning Outcomes:

By the end of this unit students will:

- recognize the author’s purpose and point of view
- share information and ideas about noise pollution
- analyze cause and effect relationship of noise in the environment
- write a unified paragraph with its necessary elements
- negotiate solutions to the problem of noise pollution
- recognize transitional devices in sentences
- identify and use adverb clauses
- write and revise application and formal letters in extended social and academic environment

Pre-reading:

- Which idea comes to your mind when you look at the title and illustration of the unit?
- In what ways are you affected by noise pollution?
- What do you do to protect yourself from noise pollution?

For the Teacher:

- Conduct pre-reading activity to arouse the students’ interest in the topic.
- Make them predict from the title and the illustrations about the contents of the text.
1. Noise pollution is defined as any form of noise that disrupts the normal functioning of life. If left unchecked, it can have serious effects on the mind and body of humans.

2. Noise pollution is one of the biggest source of discomfort, stress and nuisance in Pakistan. In urban areas and big cities, noise pollution has reached to a dangerous level. For instance, a survey by the Punjab Environmental Protection Agency claims that the level of noise in Lahore has reached 91 decibels whereas a maximum of 75 decibels is acceptable. This means that the mental and physical health of so many people is already at risk.

3. The major causes of noise pollution in Pakistan are traffic on roads, construction sites, careless use of electronic appliances and loud speech patterns. Noise coming from different modes of transport, i.e. vehicles, airplanes, trains, ships, proves to be highly stressful for human communities. With the population growth and development in urban areas, the vehicular traffic has also multiplied. This has given rise to noise pollution, largely in the form of unwarranted honking by drivers. Also, the mushroom growth of residential colonies near airports and railway stations has exposed residents to permanent and unavoidable source of noise pollution.

4. Another source of noise pollution in urban areas is the work on construction sites. Construction work in urban areas is usually slow and time-consuming. The use of transport and equipment at construction sites, its grilling and piercing sound is a big source of noise pollution. It not only disturbs the general public but also affects the construction workers by causing mental fatigue.

- Help students analyze passages in the text to identify the key idea/central thought and supporting details e.g. cause and effect.

5. Use of technology is another cause of noise pollution. For example, unmonitored use of mobile phones, electricity generators, music systems and TV, all become irritants from time to time. People usually do not switch off their mobiles or put them on silent modes when they enter offices, hospitals, schools and colleges. They also use electricity generators excessively in residential areas and put other residents ill at ease. Moreover, listening to loud music or TV on a loud volume is another source of noise pollution. For this, people need to develop some civic responsibility so that others may not be in trouble because of their careless actions.

6. Noise pollution causes not only environmental damage but it also has a negative impact on human health. It can cause aggression, hypertension, high stress levels, hearing loss, restlessness, depression and insomnia. Insomnia can further lead to anxiety, bad temper and emotional stress. In addition, noise pollution can seriously affect the learners, it gives them unnecessary mental and physical tension.

7. In Pakistan, there is a dire need to bring down the noise levels, coming from different sources. The government must gear up and utilize various means to control unwarranted noise levels. For example, the Punjab Environment Protection Agency recommends around 55 decibels of noise level in residential colonies and 75 decibels in commercial areas. These figures must be strictly enforced by the government. Furthermore, the government should ensure smooth traffic flow, block noise emitting vehicles from roads, use noise barriers where necessary, and expedite construction work to minimize noise pollution. Also, the residential societies should come forward to frame and enforce rules in their areas to check unnecessary noise producing agents.
Offices, hospitals and academic institutions should strictly prohibit the use of mobile phones for better noise management. Moreover, people should be discouraged to speak loudly in these areas.

8. Noise pollution is a serious issue and needs attention at local and state level. People must develop awareness about the dangerous impact of noise on human health. It is, therefore, a need to acquire more civic sense and responsible attitude to avoid the unnecessary use of noise pollution irritants in the environment. Only then our country would be a much quieter and peaceful place to live in.

How can we cope with the serious issue of noise pollution?

Theme:
The unit gives awareness about the negative impact of noise pollution on human health. It describes the major contributors of noise pollution and how they affect mental and physical health. It also outlines various solutions to combat the problem of noise pollution.

Glossary:

- distract: to divert from the normal course of thought or action; to take away attention or interest.
- immense: very great, huge.
- mushrooming: growing rapidly.
- excessively: to an extreme degree.
- patrolling: to police an area.
- insomnia: inability to sleep.

- disturbs: to cause distress or discomfort.
- huge: very large.
- growing: to increase or expand.
- extremely: very.
- guarding: to watch over.
- sleeplessness: the state of not sleeping.
- annoying: to provoke or irritate.

Oral Activity:
Group Discussion
Form groups of four and make a plan to control the effects of noise pollution in your school. First, list the sources that produce noise around your school. For every source, find a practical solution to overcome the problem of noise pollution. Share your findings in a class presentation.
A. Cause, effect and solutions

Do you worry about pollution? Complete the table below with your partner(s). List the causes of noise pollution. What are their effects? Can you think of some solutions to these problems?

<table>

B. Answer the following questions.

1. How do you define noise pollution?
2. How is transport a source of noise pollution?
3. How is construction work a cause of noise pollution?
4. How is the use of technology causing noise pollution?
5. Why is noise dangerous for human health?
6. What kind of precautions may reduce noise coming from electronic devices?

C. In paragraphs 3, 4, 5,6 and 7 the writer is describing the causes, effects and solutions of noise pollution. Identify and summarize these using the given mind map.

![Mind map](cause_i -> cause_ii -> cause_iii -> effects -> solutions)
A. Write the synonyms of the following words.

- disrupts (Para 1)
- rapid (Para 3)
- unmonitored (Para 5)
- nuisance (Para 2)
- piercing (Para 4)

B. Form other words using the given root words.

- pollute
- construct
- develop

C. Choose five words you have made from the root words and use them in sentences.

For the Teacher:
- Tell students about cause and effect relation and solution.
Transitional Devices

Transitional devices are the words and phrases that connect parts of your writing. They link sentences and paragraphs together to maintain continuity of ideas.

The following is a list of some commonly used transitional words or phrases.

<thead>
<tr>

An adverb clause is a group of words which does the work of an adverb. It usually begins with a subordinating conjunction such as, after, because, until, where, while, unless, as, when, since, if, though, wherever.

Example
He finished first though he began late.

C. Underline adverb clauses in the following sentences. Also encircle the subordinating conjunctions.

1. You may sit wherever you like.
2. He will pass if he works hard.
3. We shall wait here until you come.
4. I did not buy it because it was very expensive.
5. Do it before you forget.

For the Teacher:
- Help students identify and use adverb clauses.
D. Supply suitable adverb clauses.

1. Nobody likes him __________________________.
2. She sings exactly __________________________.
3. I will not go out ____________________________.
4. It shall remain _____________________________.
5. ____________________________, I spoke to his brother.

E. Use the following subordinating conjunctions in sentences.

since, unless, though, while, as, when, after

F. Identify and write these clauses in the relevant columns of the table.

1. Asif plays hockey as he enjoys it.
2. Shazia could not catch the bus because she was late.
3. Ali could not finish his test of Mathematics on time although he knew all the answers.
4. Arifa quickly ate her lunch as she was very hungry.
5. Harris is back from work so he must take rest.
6. You must work hard if you want to succeed in life.

For the Teacher:

- Explain to students that adjective clauses and adverb clauses are always dependent clauses.
G. Read the following sentences and tick the right adverbial clause given in brackets.

1. The train left the station as Asad arrived. (adverbial clause of place, adverbial clause of time)
2. You can put it wherever you like. (adverbial clause of place, adverbial clause of reason)
3. After the thief had stolen money, he left the home quickly. (adverbial clause of time, adverbial clause of manner)
4. He was very pleased that you have passed. (adverbial clause of place, adverbial clause of reason)
5. He failed because he had not worked hard. (adverbial clause of reason, adverbial clause of place)

Use of comma to separate a dependent clause from the main clause.

a. In a sentence which has an independent and a dependent clause, a comma is used to separate the two, if the sentence starts with the dependent clause.

b. The dependent clause usually starts with any of these subordinating conjunctions: while, as, although, because, since, if, after, before, until.

c. If the same sentence starts with an independent clause, no comma is required.

Examples

a. While I was eating, the doorbell rang.
   The doorbell rang while I was eating.

b. Because her alarm clock had been broken, she was late for class.
   She was late for class because her alarm clock had been broken.

c. If you are sick, you must see a doctor.
   You must see a doctor if you are sick.

d. When the rain stops, we will clean the driveway.
   We will clean the driveway when the rain stops.
H. Mark the sentences as correct or incorrect. Put a comma to make the sentence correct.

1. Because Aliya had missed her school bus she was late for school.
2. After Kalim comes home he will take you to the book shop.
3. The class will have the swimming lesson if the instructor comes tomorrow.
4. When it rains I’ll bring an umbrella to school.

Unit 12

Three Days to See

Learning Outcomes:

By the end of this unit students will:
- skim and scan the text
- know about the role models depicting professionalism
- use of conditional sentences
- analyze a narrative and bring out the central theme
- identify and differentiate simple, compound and complex sentences
- recapitulate transitional devices

Pre-reading:

- What does the title suggest?
- Have you ever heard about Helen Keller?
- Do you know any person who is deprived of sight? Share your information.

Helen Keller (1880-1968) after an illness was left blind and deaf at the age of 19 months. Keller wrote ‘The World I Live In’ in 1908 giving readers an insight into how she felt about the world.
1. Sometimes, I have thought that it would be an excellent rule to live each day as if we die tomorrow. Such an attitude would emphasize sharply the values of life. We should live each day with gentleness, vigour, and a keenness of appreciation which is often lost when time stretches before us in the constant panorama of more days and months and years to come. There are those, of course, who would adopt the epicurean motto of “eat, drink, and be merry” but most people would be chastened by the certainty of impending death.

2. In stories, the doomed hero is usually saved at the last minute by some stroke of fortune, but almost always his sense of values is changed. He becomes more appreciative of the meaning of life and its permanent spiritual values. It has often been noted that those who live, or have lived, in the shadow of death bring a mellow sweetness to everything they do.

3. Perhaps I can best illustrate by imagining what I should most like to see if I were given the use of my eyes, say for just three days.

4. On the first day, I should want most to see the people whose kindness, gentleness and companionship have made my life worth living.

5. The next day – the second day of sight – I should arise with the dawn and see the thrilling miracle by which night is transformed into day. I should behold with awe the magnificent panorama of life with which the sun awakens the sleeping earth.

For the Teacher:

- While-reading activity may be conducted to interact with the text. More while-reading questions may be asked.
- Help students analyze the chronological order of arranging paragraphs 4 to 8.
6. This day I should devote to a hasty glimpse of the world; past and present. I should want to see the pageant of man’s progress, the kaleidoscopic of the ages. How can so much be compressed into one day? Through the museums, of course.

7. The following morning I should greet the dawn, anxious to discover, new delights, for I am sure that, for those who have eyes which really see, the dawn of each day must be perfectly new revelation of beauty. This according to the terms of my miracle is to be my third and last day of sight.

8. I shall have no time to waste in regret for longing; there is so much to see. The first day I devoted to my friends, animate and inanimate. The second revealed to me the history of man and nature. Today I shall spend in the workaday world of the present, amid the haunts of men going about the business of life. And where can one find so many activities and conditions of men as in New York? So the city becomes my destination.

9. Now and then I have tested my seeing friends to discover what they see. Recently, I was visited by a very good friend who had just returned from a long walk in the woods, I asked her what she had observed. “Nothing in particular,” she replied. I might have been incredulous had I not been accustomed to such responses, for long ago I became convinced that the seeing see little.

10. How was it possible, I asked myself, to walk for an hour in the woods and see nothing worthy of note? I, who cannot see, find hundreds of things to interest me through mere touch. I feel the delicate symmetry of a leaf. I pass my hands lovingly on the smooth skin of a silver birch, or the rough shaggy bark of a pine. In spring, I touch the branches of trees hopefully in search of a bud, the first sign of awakening Nature after her winter’s sleep. I feel the delightful, velvety texture of a flower, and discover its remarkable convolutions; and something of the miracle of Nature is revealed to me. Occasionally, if I am fortunate, I place my hand gently on a small tree and feel the happy quiver of a bird in full song. I am delighted to have the cool waters of a brook rush through my open fingers. To me, a lush carpet of pine needles or spongy grass is more welcome than the most luxurious Persian rug. To me the pageant of seasons is a thrilling and unending drama, the action of which streams through my finger tips.

11. If I were the president of a university, I would set up a course called "How to Use Your Eyes". The professor would try to show his pupils how they could add joy to their lives by really seeing what passes unnoticed before them. He would try to awaken their dormant and sluggish faculties.

Notes:
Helen Keller, (1880-1968) after an illness was left blind and deaf at the age of 19 months. At the age of seven years, Anne Sullivan took charge of her. She was a 20 year old graduate of the Perkins School for the Blind.

Helen Keller’s formal education ended when she received her BA degree, but throughout her life she continued to study. There are many publications to her credit. During her life time she received awards of great distinction. She showed the world that there are no boundaries to courage and faith.

Theme:
Helen Keller, a remarkable woman, has masterfully portrayed the feelings of the deprived people. Physical fitness, according to the author, is a boon, least appreciated by those who are blessed by it. According to her, we must always remain mindful of the blessings of Almighty Allah.

2. Describe the thought expressed by the author in the first paragraph.
3. What makes you feel that the author is sad and depressed?
4. How do you get an impression that Hellen Keller was a great admirer of Nature?
5. “People who are deprived of sight are not devoid of imagination.” Discuss it referring to the text.
6. “To me the pageant of seasons is an unending drama,” Comment.

For the Teacher:

- Help students summarize the main points of the discussion for the benefit of the whole group.
B. Read the life history of Helen Keller.

Helen Adams Keller was born on June 27, 1880, in Tuscumbia, Alabama - the USA. Keller was not born blind and deaf; it was not until she was 19 months old that she contracted an illness. In March 1887, Anne Sullivan began to teach Helen to communicate by spelling words into her hand. Starting in May, 1888, Keller attended the Perkins School for the Blind. In 1894, Helen Keller moved to New York to attend the Wright-Humason School for the Deaf. In 1896, she returned to Massachusetts and Keller entered The Cambridge School for Young Ladies before gaining admittance, in 1900, to Radcliffe College. In 1904, at the age of 24, Keller graduated from Radcliffe, becoming the first deaf and blind person to earn a Bachelor of Arts degree.

Keller wrote The World I Live In in 1908 giving readers an insight into how she felt about the world. Out of the Dark, a series of essays on socialism was published in 1913. Her spiritual autobiography, My Religion, was published in 1927.

Keller suffered a series of strokes in 1961 and spent the last years of her life at her home. On September 14, 1964, President Lyndon B. Johnson awarded her the Presidential Medal of Freedom. In 1965 she was elected to the National Women’s Hall of Fame at the New York World’s Fair. Keller died in her sleep on June 1, 1968, at her home.

Arrange the details of Helen Keller’s life history in chronological order.

Grammar

Conditionals: Type II (imaginary condition)

Conditionals of this type are used when we talk about something which we do not expect to happen or which is purely imaginative.

Example
   If I were the president of a university, I would set up a course called “How to Use Your Eyes”.

For the Teacher:

- Help students identify the structure and use of conditionals type II.
Kinds of Sentences
There are three kinds of sentences according to structure: simple, compound and complex.

a. Simple Sentence:
   All main clauses can stand as simple sentence when the rest of the sentence is removed.

   Examples
   1. Most of us take life for granted.
   2. When we are in a buoyant health, death is all but unimaginable.
   3. Sometimes it was as long as a year, sometimes as short as twenty four hours.

   In the above examples, the main clauses stand as complete simple sentences, even without the rest of the sentence.

b. Compound Sentence:
   A compound sentence contains two or more main clauses.

   Examples
   1. Night came on and the room grew dark.
   2. He is rich, but he is not happy.

c. Complex Sentence
   A complex sentence consists of one or more main clauses and one or more subordinate clauses.

   Examples
   1. It is the same old story of not being grateful (main clause) for what we have until we lose it (subordinate clause).
   2. If I were the president of a university (subordinate clause), I would set up a course called “How to Use Your Eyes” (main clause).

A. Complete the following conditionals.

   1. If I were the education minister _______________________.
   2. If you had a degree ____________________________
   3. ________________________ you would get first position.
   4. If he stopped smoking ____________________________
   5. We could win the match __________________________

For the Teacher:

- Help them identify and differentiate between simple, compound and complex sentences.
B. Make three Conditionals Type II sentences.

C. Match the halves to make complete sentences.
